Numb. 347.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From July 24. to July 31. 1735.

VIENNA, May 5.

THE firſt Column of Muſcovite Troops, marching to the Aſſiſtance of the Emperor, conſiſts of 8000 Men, and is arrrived in Sileſia, where they are changing Cloaths, to appear Germans, that they may be leſs offenſive to the Eyes of the Princes of the Empire. They will purſue their Rout towards the Army on the Rhine. Upon Advice received from the Prince of Saxe-Hilberghauſen, our Court preſſes on extremely the Tranſport of Proviſions deſigned for our Army in Lombardy. The Elector of Bavaria poſitively refuſes to furniſh his Quota to the Army of the Emperor, and that of the Empire, altho' his Imperial Majeſty has ſent him ſeveral exhortatory Letters for that Purpoſe. People are curious to ſee what will be the Effect of this Refuſal.

Ratisbon, May 3. Three Colleges of the Empire have ſent de novo, to Prince Eugene 95,000 Florins, to diſpoſe of as he ſhall think fit; this Prince, nevertheleſs, makes preſſing Inſtances for the States of the Empire to make no Delay in ſending their ſeveral Quota's for the ſupport of the War. They write from Koningsburg, that 12 Poliſh Lords are arrived there with the Count de Tarlo.

Cremona, May 9. The Marſhal de Noailles arrived here Yeſterday from Milan, and the Intendant came this Night: The King of Sardinia is expected to Morrow. The Motion the Enemy made ſome Days ago was for no other Deſign but to cover their Bridge at Luzara, which they have now brought up and placed at Borgoforte.

Berlin, May 10. N. S. We hear from Koningsburg, that M. Pociey is there as well as Count Tarlo. The Ruſſians were got into Warmia, as it was reported, but they were drawing a great Body together at Ortleburg, on the Frontiers; which had obliged M. Pociey and the Troops under him, to diſperſe themſelves, in a great Hurry and Confuſion, every one ſhifting for himſelf, as well as he could.

Hague, May 13. N. S. The Emperor's Envoy has delivered to the States General a Memorial, concerning the Ceſſation of Arms propoſed in the Plan of Pacification. Our Advices from the Rhine, are in Subſtance, that the Imperialiſts were drawing out of their Quarters, in order to be ready to take the Field on the Arrival of Prince Eugene, who was ſpeedily expected. And the like Preparations were making by the French, commanded in Chief by the Marſhal de Coigny.

Paris, May 14. The Ambaſſador of Portugal continues to take a World of Pains to obtain their High Mightineſſes Aſſiſtance, and has received great Remittances from the King his Maſter, to be laid out in Warlike Utenſils. M. D' Alzevedo does the ſame Thing at the Court of Great-Britain, which is no Proof that the Broils between Spain and Portugal are in a fair Way of Accommodation.

Great Search is making at Berlin to diſcover the Author of a Pamphlet lately publiſhed, which has incurr'd his Pruſſian Majeſty's Indignation. 'Tis a Satir, ſuch as it is, entituled, A Dialogue between St. Peter and Goliah. But woe to the Man that is fixed upon for the Author, if he be catch'd.

Hague, May 17. N. S. To-day Orders were iſſued for the Detachment which are to attend his Britannick Majeſty in his Paſſage thro' the Dominions of this State, on his Way to Hanover, to hold themſelves in Readineſs at the reſpective Places aſſigned them. The Prince of Orange and the Princeſs Royal propoſe to make a Tour next Friday, to view ſome Country Seats towards Harlem. Don Louis da Cunha, Miniſter of Portugal, having lately made ſome Inſtances to the States, their High Mightineſſes Reſolution in anſwer thereto was yeſterday delivered to him.

Paris, May 18. They write from Madrid of the 2d Inſtant, That Affairs are ſtill in the ſame Scituation between Spain and Portugal; that both Sides continue to multiply their Preparations for War; but that neither has yet made a Declaration, or fired a Piece.

Edinburgh, April 22. Part of the new Fabric of the Building for the Orphan Hoſpital being finiſh'd, there are already 48 Children lodg'd therein, beſides the Maſter, Miſtreſs, and Servants.

LONDON, April 29.

Died lately Mrs. Comyns, Miſtreſs of the great Lace Shop in old Bond Street. She left 6000*l.* to each of her three Daughters, and 1000*l.* to charitable Uſes. Her Coffin was five Yards round.

Alſo Mr. Robert Lympany, aged 94, a Livery-Man of the Stationers Company, worth 800*l. per Ann.* He was 60 Years a conſiderable Merchant, yet never arreſted any Perſon. He owned a great Part of the Town of Fulham, to which he was a great Benefactor: And ſo generous, was he, that if any of his Tenants pleaded Poverty, he forgave their Arrears. By his Will he order'd all the Pariſhioners, to be invited to his Funeral.

Likewiſe the Rev. Dr. Derham, Canon of Windſor, Rector of Upminſter in Eſſex, and F. R. S. well known to the learned.

Laſt Friday in the Evening as a Gentleman was riding over Mortlack Field, he was met by three Highwaymen who robb'd him; but not being ſatisfied with his aſſuring them that they had got all he had, they made him diſmount, and ſtripping his Breeches down to his Heels, they found two Guineas more, which they took, and then beat the Gentleman, calling him Rogue and Villain for offering to cheat them.

On Saturday Morning a Coach and ſix going the Oxford-Road, was attacked near Kenſington by two Highwaymen; the Gentlemen and Ladies in it had provided themſelves with Purſes, containing a few Shillings and Halfpence, and affected ſo much reluctance to part with them, that the Fellows gave them the Watch-Word and rode off, imagining they had obtain'd a great Booty. The Company was greatly pleas'd to think they had trick'd the Highwaymen, and believing themſelves out of further Danger, were taking their Money out of the Places they had conceal'd it in, when the Fellows having diſcover'd the Cheat, rode back, made them alight out of the Coach, and robb'd them of the Value of 70*l.*
